

AMPARO Advocacy can help people (age 0-65 years) from multicultural backgrounds with disability, their families and communities to:

- Understanding disability in Australia
- Rights of persons with disabilities
- What a good life can look like for people with disability
- Mainstream and specialist disability services & how to access them
- Having choice and control when engaging with services

We can also help individuals and their families:

- Gain confidence to exercise their rights and voice their concerns
- Connect with others including peers

We can do this through:

- Face to face meetings in people's homes or a place they prefer
- Small group workshops /discussions with communities'
- Tailored workshops about specific disability types and understanding what is a good life
